Authority Over Demons

Mark 1:16-28 | Jason Krute, Senior Pastor

Below are simple summaries of topics found within each passage of Scripture. A great way to see the flow of Scripture is to summarize what you have read in your own words. Feel free to add your summaries to the ones provided here.

- 1:16—20 Jesus calls fishermen to become “fishers of men”. Discipling begins immediately in ministry.

- 1:21—22 Jesus teaches with an authority not seen in the common religious leader.

- 1:23—26 Jesus demonstrates his authority over demons (AKA unclean spirits). Credibility is being established.

- 1:27-28 Jesus is recognized as a new authority that challenges spiritual forces.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK
DOUG AND EMILEE IRWIN

Greater Europe Mission - France

For over eight years, Doug and Emilee Irwin served faithfully in France with a passion for sharing Christ in a spiritually challenging environment. Their time in Paris included a variety of ministries, from Doug serving as Field Leader for GEM to Emilee's role as Arts Impact Zone leader.

One of the most exciting developments during their time in France was helping launch a new church in the heart of Paris. That church now continues under strong local leadership. But the Irwins' impact goes far beyond that one story. Join us on Sunday, September 7, at 11:15 am in Adult Central to hear more about how God worked in and through their family during their years overseas.

The Irwins will also be joining us at the church picnic that afternoon. This will be an additional opportunity to reconnect, express your thanks, and send them off with love as they begin this next chapter.

Visit gcchapel.org/our-missionaries to learn more about our missionaries or to be added to the missions newsletter and get updates via a single weekly email!

August's Change for Change giving will go to the Irwins to help them with expenses of moving back to the US. Total giving as of 8/17/2025: $6,155
