Authority Over Sin

Mark 2:1-17 | Jason Krute, Senior Pastor

Today's challenge is to draw a picture related to Mark 2:1-12. This is an emotional exercise. Draw a picture that creatives a vivid depiction of any emotion from this story. Do not draw this in an academic way where you focus on the accuracy of the scene. Focus on something felt by the characters such as Jesus, the friends, the paralytic man, the scribes, the crowd, etc. This can be anything, as it is meant to speak to you alone.

One of our core values at GCC is to fulfill the Great Commission. Because of our commitment to local and global missions, we support 20 active missionaries and missionary families around the world, as well as a few retired missionaries. We receive regular updates from our active missionaries, pray for them, and send monthly support. We also work to meet needs in their ministries and help with special projects by sending teams and funding.

A favorite tradition at GCC is our annual “Christmas in September” Change for Change collection. This is an additional gift to each of our missionary families on top of their regular monthly support. Depending on tax regulations and the guidelines set by their missions agencies, some may use this gift for ministry-related expenses, while others may use it for personal or family needs.

Wherever possible, we’ve given them the option to choose how they receive these funds, providing the flexibility to use this gift in the way that will benefit them most. However it is used, our hope is that this offering brings meaningful support and encouragement as they serve the Lord and share the gospel around the world.

If you’d like to give, drop your donation in one of the offering boxes in the building, or give online.

Visit gcchapel.org/our-missionaries to learn more about our missionaries or to be added to the missions newsletter and get updates via a single weekly email!

August’s Change for Change giving will go to the Irwins to help them with expenses of moving back to the US. Total giving as of 8/31/2025: $ 8,408
