

Live Out Love
Children of God
John 8:31-59

Head Start: What part of your family identity defines you the most?

(Family Identity - the expression of what makes a family unique, consisting of things like family traditions, values, goals, vision, ethics, heritage, etc.)

Pride & Identity in Judaism (verses from Deuteronomy 7)

- People given a land (1-2)
- People set apart, even in marriages (3-4)
- Uncompromising belief system (5)
- Chosen people (6)
- Loved and protected by God himself (7-11)

What about your identity is God working to redefine? OR

What have I placed off limits to God?

Are there things I need to confess to God? OR

Are there relationships I need to restore?

God loves you enough to offer hard truth. Are you willing to listen to the voices that deliver it?
