Testimonies:

Connie: I grew up on a rural farming community. My parents were farmers and my four siblings and I were actively involved on the farm until we went away to school. We were very involved in our local church and I so enjoyed my upbringing at home. I went away to college and met my first husband in 1973. Daniels and I were married in 1974 and went to Greenwood, Delaware where he was from. We were involved in construction, farming, and the local Christian school. We supported several missionary couples and Skip and Rachel were one of them. Daniel passed away in 2006, the same year Rachel did. Skip and I were married in 2008. Today, I'm still very active with my poultry farm, the Christian school, and church. God is so good!

Skip: My parents came to know the Lord when I was about eleven years old. As a child, the Lord 'spoke' to me when I was pretending to be an evangelist. It was from that time on that I knew my life would be used by Him in a special way. Many years went by before I completely surrendered to Him and in 1965 I was drafted into the Army. It was through the Army experience that God drew me to Himself and called me into missionary service. Rachel and I met at Bible college and were married in 1968. We spent 30 years as missionaries with Wycliffe Bible Translators working in various countries around the world. Leaving Wycliffe in 2000, the Lord moved us into prison ministry working in institutions in North and South Carolina. In the fall of 2005, I started working as a volunteer chaplain at the county jail. Rachel stepped into glory in 2006 and Connie and I were married in 2008. While we were dating, I made contact with the State Chaplain in Delaware and started working as a volunteer chaplain, one week after we were married. God has been so good to the both of us.

Current Ministry with Interlink:

Retiring from the prison ministry after six years, but wanting to be involved in some sort of ministry, I contacted the Head Chaplain for the Bayhealth Medical group in Delaware. They were looking for someone with a background like mine. My responsibilities center around visitation, counseling, and the occasional Sunday service. Connie still works at the local Christian school and continues to help with the music program at the church we attend.
