TESTIMONY:

I was saved at the age of seven. After answering some questions on what it means to believe in Jesus as Savior, my mother led me to the Lord. At the age of nine I felt called to the mission field after reading a biography of Amy Carmichael, missionary to India. A few years later I was introduced to the ministry of Child Evangelism Fellowship on a field trip. I didn't know then what the Lord was preparing for me, but He was faithful to lead me all the way. Growing up in church and participating in the AWANA™ program for many years, I had many opportunities to grow in my relationship with God and participate in service in His Kingdom in preparation for the mission field.

HISTORY OF CEF MINISTRY:

After graduating from high school I attended Children's Ministries Institute. After graduation, I served for several years on a volunteer and part-time basis with CEF in the urban areas of St. Louis, Missouri. In 2009, I received the call to serve full-time with CEF in Little Rock, Arkansas. I served in Little Rock until the spring of 2012 before transferring back to serve with CEF in St. Louis.

CURRENT MINISTRY WITH CEF:

I currently work with Child Evangelism Fellowship in St. Louis, Missouri. As summer ministry coordinator my job is to develop 5-Day Club ministry throughout the area. I also serve as the assistant to the local director. My favorite part of the ministry is encouraging and equipping churches to fulfill their part of the Great Commission through ministry to the children of their communities.
